

I encourage you to turn your problems over to Him. He will put on a new road today. I got my life back. I can say, there is no comparison between my life now and what God brought me from. I've been changed. And an important part of that transition was the Bible; It is God's road map for our lives. He helps us not only become clean, but to stop the wrong behavior, because He changes us on the inside. When I recognized my need for God, that was His invitation to start working in me. I remember it began with a friend inviting me to a church. There were interpreters there and the gospel finally became accessible to me. I began attending more often, and I understood more about Jesus Christ, and I asked Him into my life.

It was trouble that made me face the reality that I could not fix my problems or myself; I needed God; and I found Him through Jesus Christ.

Find out more about God and learn something from Him. He has something to teach you that will change your life forever.

Today, there are interpreted services and Deaf churches in your area. If you need to chat, contact me. I'd be honored to introduce you to my new best friend.

Hello my name is Edward Umlauf. I want to tell you my story about how I was changed by God. I was on drugs and in trouble, and I was attracted to so much that was wrong that I eventually got into trouble with the police.

I was raised in a family that didn't know sign language. Now I look back and see how wrong I was, but since that time, my life has been changed for the good. I have become a Christian and I've learned about how Jesus Christ can take your wrongs and re-deem them. I know many of my choices were brought on by the sense of isolation in my family and the church, which I attended without an interpreter. I could communicate with my "friends," and we had a lot of fun together. Yet, those relationships put me onto the wrong road. I was constantly in trouble, and the
